

Questions

Round One

1. What bird do you most often find on Christmas cards?
2. Which small brown bird is often associated with London or Cockneys?
3. Mute, whooper and Bewick are all types of what bird?
4. Which famous artist well-known for his paintings of birds founded a nature reserve at Slimbridge?
5. What colour is a male blackbird's beak?
6. In the song sung by Vera Lynn, what flew over the white cliffs of Dover?
7. In the rather naughty Tom Lehrer song, what did he do to pigeons in the park?
8. In the famous song, what sang in Barclay Square?
9. Which bird drums on trees to find food and mark out its territory?
10. In the world of ballet, which bird is associated with a lake?

Round Two

11. In the nursery rhyme 'sing a song of sixpence', what birds were baked into a pie?
12. According to a Monty Python sketch; what was dead, lifeless and only stayed upright because it was nailed to its perch?
13. Which is bigger – a blue tit or a greenfinch?
14. Complete the name – Little Jenny xxxxx
15. What cartoon bird is always trying to escape from Sylvester the cat and often says "I tawt I taw a puddy tat. I did, I did see a puddy tat!"
16. In the children's TV programme Bagpuss, what was the name of the woodpecker?
17. Which bird is said to sing 'Little bit o'bread and no cheeeese'?
18. In the saying about magpies, what does two magpies foretell?
19. Rod Hull had a very famous bird that used to cause havoc. What was it?
20. What very special birds live at the Tower of London and must never leave?

